

Old Wardour Castle & Salisbury during the English Civil War

with Julian Humphrys

Wednesday 24th August 2022 (7.30-9.30pm)

Built in the 14th Century for prestige rather than as a fortification, 250 years later Old Wardour Castle became an important military garrison.

What were the experiences of Wardour and Salisbury in the English Civil War?

Following posts at the National Army Museum and English Heritage, in 2009 Julian Humphrys became Development Officer of the Battlefields Trust and is now a Trustee and Chair of its Wessex Region.
